Mi'kmaw Court Worker Program

About the Mi'kmaw Court Worker Program

The Mi'kmaw Court Worker Program is designed to assist Mi'kmaw and indigenous people who were charged by police and have to go to court.

The Mi'kmaw Court Worker Will:

- Provide information to help clients understand their charge(s), rights, options and requirements in the justice system.
- Help the client find legal assistance, if needed.
- Accompany the client in court to provide an explanation of the process, events, orders, sentences, court actions, etc. specific to the clients case.
- Refer clients to appropriate resources that are helpful to the client.
- Offer justice support services specific to the clients circumstances.
- The Mikmaw court worker can speak on behalf of the client.
